THE GOAT.
There was a goat in our town
And he was wondrous wise.
He'd gulp a leather apron down,
But never touch mince pies.
One day he dined on armor plate.
The next he dined on tin.
The farmer made him gather weight,
The latter made him thin.
He often ate tomato cans,
And bits of steel to boot,
And browsed among the pots and pans
And loved a flannel suit.
A couple that was newly wed
Came where this goat was at,
And near where he was wont to tread
They took a furnished flat.
One day the wife some biscuit made,
The goat was passing by;
He ate one, he was unafraid,
He knew he had to die.
And after he was laid away
Where grasses sadly wave,
They piled some biscuit where he lay
To mark his early grave.
There was a goat in our town,
And he was wondrous wise,
He gulped a deadly biscuit down—
His jacket, there he lies.

A large force of men are engaged night and day in a strenuous endeavor to modify the dangerous condition of the steamers now moored at the wharf. The boats are free from the large pack of ice, a channel having been cut around them, which gives a limited scope for the movement of the wheel. Although an immediate break-up is not expected—not before Wednesday at least—each one of the three boats has steam up all the time and to that extent will be prepared when the great mass of ice moves. If the ice is solid to the bottom above the piers it may hold fast, and if it does it will lessen the danger which now threatens the destruction of all river craft along the city front.

AN EARLY INTRUDER

Colored Man Found Asleep in St. Patrick's Church Yesterday

Early yesterday morning, when St. Patrick's Church in Limestone street was opened preparatory for service, a somewhat startling and novel discovery was made.
Clarence Lee, colored, had, some time during the night, entered the Church edifice, and after taking off his shoes and investing himself with a gown worn by the Minister during service, selected a spot in the rear of the altar and laid himself down to pleasant dreams and sweet repose.
Clarence, when aroused from his slumbers by Chief Donovan, was somewhat amazed as well as dazed, and could not give an intelligent account of when or how he came to domicile himself in the Church.
It is evident that the man was free of felonious intent, and that he had wandered and found his way into the Church while unduly intoxicated.
He was given quarters in Hotel de Melvain, and will be arraigned before Judge Whitaker today, when it is probable his addled brain will have clarified and he will be capable of giving a more lucid and intelligent account of the occurrence.
It is likely to cost him more than the price of a bed in any event.

PROF. B. A. JENKINS.

PROF. B. A. JENKINS

Begins His Meeting at the Christian Church Tomorrow Afternoon

When the union revival services were being discussed and planned some weeks ago, the Ministers spoke of following such a united effort sooner or later with a series of meetings in their own Churches. Such meetings, it was felt, would be helpful in many ways to each individual congregation.

The Christian Church is to be congratulated upon securing the services of such a strong leader, successful worker and eloquent speaker as President B. A. Jenkins of Kentucky University. A prominent educator, a scholar without pedantry, a man of God with a message for men, a clear thinker and cogent speaker, a believer in the might of true manhood, a teacher of the highest ideals—"the true, the beautiful and the good"—surely Maysville will be greatly blessed by his coming.

The Christian Church could hardly secure a better man just now to fit the present hopeful conditions created by Dr. Ely's faithful, earnest, tireless, energetic "work of faith and labor of love" with his "true yoke-fellow," Professor Pierman, whose accommodating spirit, pleasant manner and sermons of song have won the hearts of the Christian people of Maysville.

President Jenkins, it will be remembered by many, conducted the great revival meeting at Flemingsburg about a year ago when so many men, women and young people turned to the Lord.

Everyone is cordially invited to hear him tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock and evening at 7:30.

The TOBACCO FAIR
The Cincinnati papers say Maysville will have another Tobacco Fair on the 22d. That's where Cincinnati is mistaken; Maysville will not give a Fair, but the farmers for 100 miles around will have a Fair in Maysville. This Fair is given by everybody interested in WHITE BURLEY; this Fair is given to encourage the farmers to grow the best of tobacco that diligence and hard work can produce, and IN SPITE of TRUSTS, ORGANIZATIONS or WHAT-NOTS. The fact is, the man with the "good burley" is bound to get GOOD PRICES. It is the finest of goods that are always scarcest.
COURAGE, FARMERS!
Get your samples ready and bring them to the Fair. You may get a prize; you may not; but your sample may be the cause of your getting 10c, 15c or 25c more for your crop.
ONE FACT STANDS OUT!
That no farmer ever received a prize that didn't buy his Tobacco Canvas from Merz Bros. It's also a fact that all tobacco raised under CANVAS from Merz Bros. brings 10% to 25% more in price. 150,000 yards ready for delivery, 2c and up. Stop in Tobacco Fair Day.

The conditions in Breathitt county are the natural outgrowth of Goebelism; and vice versa. What a pity that Marse HENRY WAT- TERSON did not win his fight against the greatest enemies Kentucky ever had—the Goebel Law and its author.

The grower who sells his tobacco to some one else at a loss, in preference to selling to the so-called Trust at a fair profit, is on a par with the planter who burns his cotton in order to raise the price. In either event, it's cutting off the nose to spite the face.

In Louisville town a few days ago an intelli- gent brace of Jurymen assessed a fine of $500 and costs against the Editor of The Evening Post, because that paper had dared to say that the Honorable PATRICK SHARKEY kept a saloon with a gambling attachment; and the next day the Grand Jury returned an indictment against the Honorable PAT, charging him with suffer- ing gaming on his premises. It is now in order for that learned Jury of idiots to fine that Grand Jury.

W. S. TAYLOR may go acquit in Des Moines, but there is a well-grounded belief that his guilt could be proven in Kentucky, and that he is now under sentence in Heaven. —Louisville Times.

Nothing surer than that "his guilt could be proven in Kentucky." It would be necessary only for another TOM CAMPBELL to discover another GEORGE FRANKLIN WEAVER, who would swear that he saw a gunbarrel sticking out of the Governor's office window at the mo- ment the ball was fired into that wonderful hackberry tree.

The story printed in The Louisville Times of January 28th, to the effect that A. G. ERN- SHWILLER, Prosecuting Attorney at Hartford City, Ind., and a classmate of CALEB POWERS, had stated that Mr. POWERS had appealed to him for aid, which he would not grant, as he— ERNSHWILLER—believes him guilty, is denied in a letter received by Mr. POWERS from Mr. ERNSHWILLER.

The letter states that the story in the Dem- ocratic organ was manufactured out of whole cloth, and that the writer hopes to see Mr. POWERS successful at his next trial. The let- ter in full is as follows:

"HARTFORD CITY, IND., February 4th, 1905.

Dear Sir: I have before me your letter of the 28th ultimo, inclosing clipping from The Louisville Times. The condition of the health of myself and family pre- vented me from answering at as early a date as you desired.

"I am pleased to note that you attribute to me better judgment than to knowingly misquote you or cause it to be said that you made statements or appeals to me, when, in fact, no such things were ever done by you. The entire article was based upon a casual conversation—had in the hearing of a reporter—in regard to the probability of Governor HANLEY granting a requisition for TAYLOR.

"From a simple statement that I knew you, had been your classmate and had heard from you occasionally since your arrest, the fertile creative brain of the reporter en- larged upon the statement until I was made to say an en- tirely different thing from what I did say, and the further the statement was made the larger it became.

"You never made an appeal to me of any kind to aid or assist you in any way. I dislike very much this no- toriety, and have no desire for any further, and hope that this matter may end where it is, as I cannot see where any injury can be done you or your cause, and you pri- vately know my feelings in regard to you.

"Wishing you success in your coming trial, I am, very respectfully yours, A. G. ERNSHWILLER.

"Mr. Caleb Powers, Louisville, Ky."

OLD AGE.

Depends Not Upon Years, but Upon Vital Force.

A GREAT DISCOVERY TO WARD OFF OLD AGE.

In Maysville lately there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to old people. Some at 50 years call themselves old, and really appear so; while others at 70 years seem active, vigorous and young.

A reporter of THE PUBLIC LEDGER happened in the store of John C. Pecor, our local druggist, the other evening, and this subject was brought up. Said Mr. Pecor: "It is a fact, and we see it illustrated every day right here in Maysville, it is not years, old age does not begin at any settime, but it is loss of vital force that makes a person old. Weakened digestion, thin blood and poor circulation soon start functional power and vitality on the wane, and then the sym- ptoms of old age quickly appear. You know a man is as old as he feels.

"On the other hand," continued Mr. Pecor, "that old feeling may be warded off, and I wish every person in Maysville who feels old, whether they are so in years or not, would try the great discovery, Vinol. I know that it has vital prin- ciples which will in a natural manner strengthen digestion, assimilation and all the functional powers, send rich, red blood coursing through the veins, and give new life to every organ of the body, and this is what makes the old feel young again."

Mrs. H. W. Avery of Norwich, N. Y., writes: "At the age of 89 I felt the need of a tonic, something to strengthen and build me up. For a year and a half I have taken Vinol, and I have found that it brings vigor and life to the aged as nothing else will."

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom (cousin to the late United States President, Zachary Taylor), 429 West Erie street, Chicago, who is 76 years old, says Vinol is a godsend to old people. So also does Mr. George L. Jones, Sr., of 19 Perrine Ave., Jersey City, and A. J. Baker of 713 Lo- cust street, Evansville, Ind.

Vinol repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline and replaces weakness with strength. It is an ideal body builder for old folks.

We promise you that Vinol is, first of all, agreeable, because it contains no fishy oil. Second, that it is a genuine cod liver medicine, containing all the medicinal curatives and strength-making elements taken direct from fresh cod livers; and third, we will return your money if it does not do exactly what we claim for it. TO THE PRESS
The Managers of the Maysville Tobacco Fair return thanks to THE LEDGER and Bulletin for many courtesies and a liberal use of their space in promoting the enterprise. They also want to thank the newspapers of a large part of Kentucky and Ohio for many kind notices of the Fair which were inserted gratuitously. Gentlemen of the press, if you will attend our entertainment at the Opera-house Wednesday, take a seat on the stage. We could never succeed in making these Fairs a success with- out your help. If you want anything while here ask for it.

There were three additions to the Christian Church yesterday morning.
Rev. Gregory, Passionist Father of Mt. Adams Monastery, Cincinnati, sang the last mass at St. Patrick's Church yesterday morning and also delivered a very fine sermon, which was a great treat to his large congregation.
Castilian Williams, colored, died at his home near Mayslick Friday night. He was a member of the Mayslick Fair Company. He leaves a wife and one child. The funeral occurred yesterday at Mayslick, the procession being fully half mile long.

Mr. Thomas Martin, a farmer of Brown County, O., made a narrow escape yesterday. He was crossing from Aberdeen to this side and when near the Big Kanawha he stepped on a cake of ice that had been cut free from the boat and was thrown into the water. Had not the captain and engineer of the boat hurried to his aid he would have surely drowned. Mr. Martin is Fred Zwiegart's father-in-law.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

The good town of Carlisle has more bad luck than usually falls to a little city. Saturday her electric light plant went up in smoke, with a loss of some $20,000.

Mr. J. H. Rogers, formerly of Maysville, and a graduate of M. I. T. in the class of '04, recently secured through Hapgoods of 309 Broadway, New York, a good position with the Gray National Teletograph Company of that city.

PRETTY FAIR PRICE

What the Trust Paid For a Woodford County Crop

W. L. Cannon of near Midway has finished delivering to V. F. Zeigler, buyer for the American Tobacco Company in Versailles, his crop of 47,775 pounds of tobacco, which he sold at an average of 14 cents per pound.

This crop was produced on twenty-one acres of Woodford county land, which is an average yield of 2,275 pounds per acre and an income per acre, for a single season, of $318.30—three times the estimated value of the land.

And, really, this looks like the "Trust" will pay the right kind of prices for the right kind of tobacco.

A BOLD HOLD-UP

Negro Thief Relieved White Lady of Her Pocket-Book

The boldest and most audacious day light robbery ever committed in this city was perpetrated Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock.

At that hour Mrs. Rose Purdon was returning to her home in the East End, after having made some purchases down town, and as she stepped off the East end of Limestone bridge she was suddenly confronted by a colored man who snatched her pocket-book. It was attached to her wrist by a chain, and in the scuffle which ensued on the part of Mrs. Purdon to keep her own and the Negro to gain possession, the chain was broken and the thief made off with his booty.

Charles Sullivan and Bert Ennis were some distance off—not near enough, however, to render aid—and saw the outrage perpetrated.

The matter was reported to Police headquarters and the entire force was soon on the hunt for the culprit.

The trail led out Bank street and up Front; when near the pumping-house of the Water Company a couple of boys notified the pursuers that the Negro in his flight had thrown something over the bank at this point. A search being made, a receipt was found, the bill having been paid to Miss Anna King by Mrs. Purdon. The pocket-book, which contained, besides the receipt, $5.45, was not recovered.

The man was finally run down and arrested by Ryan and Senteny, who found him hid in an outbuilding in Third street between Union and Lexington streets. He is now in Jail.

The Negro's name is Charles Clayton, and he claims Dayton, O., for his home.

Mr. Thomas Guilfoyle was attracted by the suspicious movements of Clayton Saturday. He said the Negro closely scrutinized every woman passing to the L. and N. afternoon train, and that when Mrs. Purdon passed West on Bridge that he followed on after her.

Clayton is evidently an apt scholar, as it has only been a week or so since he was arrested and tried before Judge Whitaker for stealing a watch from the home of Dick Burns. The evidence was not strong enough to convict, so he escaped for the time being.

There is no doubt about his being in the toils and meshes of the law this time. His chance for going over the road is as good as 100 to 1.

EVANGELISTIC MEETING

Closing Services Attended by Unusually Large Congregations

The Rasp store-room was filled with men Saturday night, many standing. Dr. Smoot sang "Tell Mother I'll Be There."

Just before the service a large crowd of three or four hundred gathered in front of the store to witness the pictures of Bunyan's Dream.

The services of yesterday were exceedingly interesting and helpful, large audiences being present. By far the largest gathering of the union meeting was that of last night. The seating capacity of the Baptist Church was taxed to its utmost, about nine or ten hundred being in attendance.

Dr. Ely took his text from the third chapter of Mark: "Stand forth; and stretch forth thine hand." 'Twas one of Dr. Ely's strongest sermons. "We must stand forth for Christ if we would have his blessings. The healed hand will be of little use to the world unless it is used for God."

"We may believe in our physician and in his remedy, too; but if we refuse to take the medicine we need not expect to recover."

Dr. Ely and Prof. Pierman will be at the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock to greet everyone with a cordial handshake.

Remember tonight's meeting in behalf of young men. Let everybody come and make this, our last meeting, the very best of all.

The Christian people of Maysville will not soon forget the words and works, the prayers and songs of Dr. Ely and Prof. Pierman. May God bless them wherever they may go, and be with them "till we meet again."

See Gerbrich's special on Pianos this week.

Rev. H. T. Musselman's pastorate of the First Baptist Church having expired at the morning service yesterday, he was recalled for three weeks as a supply Minister. As stated in THE LEDGER some time ago, the Reverend gentleman contemplates taking a post graduate course in a Chicago Theological College.

SAY!

You people who have been buying river coal all winter, have you noticed your pile lately? It's going down mighty fast, isn't it? Well, now, that is caused by the ice in it melting. In our coal you don't get any of that. You get nothing but nice, clean coal arriving from the mines most every day. Then our coal is worth a trial, isn't it? Call up 69 and we will tell you more about it. Remember, we also handle Salt, Sand and Baled Hay.

MYALL-NIHART WEDDING

Mason County Man Married in Oklahoma Last Week

The Edmond (Oklahoma) Sun of February 15th has the following of the marriage of Mr. James Myall, a brother of Mr. Eneas Myall of Sutton street, this city—

"A very pretty wedding was solemnized last night at the home of Prof. Nihart on Rankin avenue, when his daughter, Myrtle, was united in marriage to Mr. James Myall of Maysville, Ky. The entire affair was carried out so quietly that few knew of it, only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and a few out of town friends being present. Promptly at 8 o'clock, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, and the groom, accompanied by Miss Pearl Nihart, entered the parlor and were soon united by Rev. VirDen, Pastor of the M. E. Church. The bride wore a gown of delicate white chiffon-mull, trimmed with inserts of Valenciennes lace and frills of white, made after an original design, which was very effective. She carried an immense bouquet of pink carnations tied with white streamers. The traveling dress was a chic tailored suit of brown mohair made with Persian bands. A brown silk hat was worn with it. The groom wore the conventional black suit.

"After a pleasant hour spent in chat and congratulations all partook of an elegant repast. Many handsome presents were sent in as tokens of love from distant friends.

"The bride is an extremely pretty woman, educated and talented and above all a splendid housekeeper. Mr. Myall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Myall, who moved here from Kentucky last year. Mr. Myall came down from the Fair in August to visit his parents, and carries back with him one of Edmond's most popular young ladies. He is a well-to-do young man, big hearted and possessed of hundreds of friends who will welcome them back to Kentucky. They left last night for Oklahoma City, from where they go to Louisville, Ky., via Memphis."

My last invoice of those Extra Fancy Open Kettle Molasses just in. They go at the surprisingly low price of 45c. The quality can't be beat. My fine Blended Coffees are the talk of the town. They still go at 20c and 25c. No money in them to me at the price, but they are snags for you. FINEST TEAS bought directly from the importers. Can't be equaled in Maysville, either in price or quality. PERFECT FLOUR always gives satisfaction. If you want the best at all times don't buy any other brand. You know I would not sell it and recommend it for sixteen years continuously if it was not what I claim for it—always the best. Those extra fine fall catch MACKERELS are going like hot cakes just because they are what I recommend them to be—the best that can be bought. Remember, I guarantee everything I sell to be just as recommended. If I tell you an article is the best, and you find it is not, return it and get your money back. At the extremely low prices I have named on these goods I must ask my customers to pay cash when they wish to take advantage of the prices.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

HAVE THE DAVIS PRINTING HOUSE PRINT IT. PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING.

Mrs. Hulda Potters, who has been seriously ill, is somewhat improved. Dr. Graham of South Manchester was her attending physician.

D. B. Jenkins moved this week to the Fifth Ward, Maysville, from the Pelham farm. The Bluebaker brothers will occupy the residence vacated by Mr. Jenkins.

The funeral of Enoch L. Sexton was preached by Elder T. P. Degman Wednesday at 1 o'clock at his late home. Burial at the Wells burying-ground. Deceased was highly respected by his neighbors, who lament his sad death Monday. Mr. Sexton leaves three daughters, Misses Edith, Nettie and Mrs. Lizzie Rash, to mourn their loss.

Mr. William Chunn, who lives across the river from Springdale, and is blind, fell on the ice Thursday of last week and was seriously injured. It was thought no bones were broken but he is unable to walk or move his limbs. On account of his age, about 75 years, his recovery is doubtful. It will be sad news to his many friends.

GEORGE COLLINS.

Mr. George Collins, whose serious illness was mentioned in Saturday's LEDGER, died at his home near Mayslick at 12:30 yesterday morning, in the 57th year of his age, after a short illness of pneumonia.

He leaves a widow and eight children—Harvey, Dye, Lizzie, Samuel, Ollie, Lena, John and J. B. Collins,—besides three brothers—Gilbert A. of this city, Charles of Washington and Samuel P. Collins of Mayslick.

The deceased was an affectionate husband, a kind father and an excellent citizen. He leaves his family well provided for.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with services by Rev. W. W. Horner. Interment in Mayslick Cemetery.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT.

Maysville Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After the reader has read the public statement of this representative citizen of Maysville given below, he must fairly, squarely and honestly come to this conclusion. A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the party in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work under similar circumstances. Read this:

M. E. Chisholm, Constable in District No. 2, living at 343 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills positively cured me of kidney trouble, and I do not hesitate to give them the strongest kind of recommendation. I had been troubled with too frequent action of the kidney secretions and it disturbed my rest nights. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore and I noticed an improvement in my condition from the start. My trouble was soon entirely cured. This was some five years ago, and I have had no return of it since. Anyone suffering from difficulties arising from disordered kidneys can make no mistake by using Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
